General Comments
The operator speaks to the children in a very calm manner. She creates conversation by asking the children many open-ended questions. When the child is having a difficult time, she will state "use your words. What is upsetting you?" Positive child guidance was noted during the visit. One child was trying to pull the zipper up on their jacket. When the child finally succeeded the comment was "You did it! I'm proud of you." There is an emphasis on the children's independency in the centre, whether it through free play and exploring their limits, getting ready for outdoor play or cleaning after mealtime. The operator ensures there is time for free play and group activities during the day. The children seem very comfortable in the environment.
