General Comments
The Lunar New year is being celebrated in the facility with decorations, crafts and trying various food that coincide with the with the celebration. The operator encourages the children to make choices and respects the child's choice. The operator has a calm and soothing demeanor when speaking with the children, advising them to uses their words and to take deep breaths when they get upset or frustrated. An example of this is when the children were trying to get undressed when they came in from outdoor playtime. The operator encourages independent behaviour.as observed during craft and lunch time when the children were observed getting up from the table to get more craft materials and putting their cutlery in the sink and food wrappers in the trash can after they ate their lunch. While the children ate their lunch the operator read a story that was picked by one of the children, "Those Shoes" by Maribeth Boelts. Children's artwork is displayed through the room and learning stories are stored in a document display case on the shelf for the children to look through whenever they want.
