General Comments

The Afterschool children have two beautiful classrooms, that are bright and well equipped. They have been making field trips to the dollar store to buy present for friends and family and they will now start wrapping them. The afterschool children have also been making home made crafts and gifts for Christmas as well. They also support a charity for homeless children through a bottle drive.

They use Henry Park for out side play and their own smaller space to the left of the school as well. The climbers have pea gravel but the depths will need checked when the snow melts.
