General Comments
On the morning of my visit the morning Preschool 4 year old group was finishing a story and practicing singing songs for their upcoming graduation. The educator and children are excited for this special day! The children did a run-through of their songs and practiced wearing their hats for one of the songs. When one child did not want to wear their hat, the educator showed lots of patience and understanding towards them. The children had also made graduation t-shirts earlier in the morning and celebrated a child's birthday. They had outdoor time before pick-up. Child files were checked and all is in order. The parent information board is complete with all required postings.
