General Comments

Monitoring inspection:

Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities both indoors and outdoors this morning. Documentation of purposeful planning is evident and reflects the children's learning within each environment. Documentation and materials added to the environments supports the children's current interest and learning.

Hand washing routines observed.

New staff files (2) reviewed. All required documents in place. New staff are currently finishing review of Operator Manual and will sign off on signed statement when complete.
