General Comments

On the day of my visit the children were running around their running track getting some indoor exercise. They have a new puppy called Charlie Puff who is very good natured and well behaved with the children. The children are very interested in animals now and they went with Lynne to the dog groomer and watched Charlie Puff get a hair cut.. They wrote a learning story about this event that they shared with me. They have expanded on this theme with stories about their own pets.

Lynne does excellent work using the NB Curriculum with the children and following their interests while also expanding upon their knowledge.
