General Comments

Arrived for a monitoring inspection. Megan Munden was also present for the inspection. Operator presented herself to the door and indicated that she did not have any children in attendance today. Operator explained that one child had attended her home on Saturday, therefore this child was not in attendance today, operator flexes her hours to suit the working hours of parents and may work earlier, later or on weekends as needed. Monitoring inspection was not completed as no children were in attendance and operator was informed that the monitoring inspection would be completed on an alternative date. Will follow up with regulations regarding change of hours and extended hours required documentation.
