General Comments
Upon Licensing staff arrival, the main play space was tidy, bright and inviting. New flooring and cupboards have been installed after experiencing a flood. All play material and supplies have been restored and in order. The main play space has toys and materials such as a large doll house, a play kitchen, bins of Lego, gears, wooden blocks and books were organized in bins and on shelves. In the kitchen space, there was a craft supply shelf with paint, chalk, colouring supplies, beads and paper as well as a table and chairs. The parent board was visible at the bottom of the stairs and the children's hooks are labeled with their names. The Operator has a large monthly planner with school buses on display in the main play space and paper sneakers to decorate for their cubbies later this afternoon. The outdoor play space was large with natural shade and garden plants. There were two covered sandboxes, an outdoor kitchen, trucks, a soccer ball with two nets, a basketball net, a picnic table with umbrella and an art station. Some of the children arrived shortly after 11:00am from their first day of school. The Operator welcomed them by name and invited them down to play. The children were excited to tell the Operator about their first day and answered questions about their classroom and teacher. Child and Operator files were organized and with required documentation. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.
