General Comments

Day of monitoring inspection was a PD day for the school so children were in attendance for the entire day. Two children were attending during the inspection.

Home was clean and well maintained. Materials were labeled and within reach for children. Extra materials were available for educator to rotate into the room.

Long term project of puzzles and Lego were observed and displayed in the room. All materials were developmentally appropriate for school age children and were based on their interests.

Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times.
