General Comments
Renewal Inspection: The children were observed building with blocks, playing with lego, board games, coloring, building forts, and playing in the sensory table in the indoor environment. Outside the children were observed playing with water balloons and spray bottles to stay cool. The educators were observed having positive interactions and engaging in play with the children. Documentation of the children's artwork was displayed around the classroom. "Look What's on the Go-Go" Binder has been created for parents and children to look back and reflects on past play experiences. The following records were reviewed: Incident logs, fire drills, planning sheets, playground checks, and daily attendance sheets. All staff files were viewed, and a random review of child files was completed. Facility is recommended for licensing.
