General Comments Renewal Inspection: A renewal inspection was conducted during the afternoon for the school-age children. The children were observed participating in a variety of activities both indoors and outdoors. Indoors, the children were observed engaging in an art activity using paint and squeegees, playing with Lego, reading stories, and playing hide-and-seek. Outdoors, the children were observed playing gaga ball, having snack, and playing on the playground equipment. Documentation was current and reflective of the children's past play experiences. The documentation binder was up to date with photos of the children participating in different activities. Children's artwork was displayed throughout the room. The following records were reviewed: Incident logs, fire drill records, daily attendance records, all staff files, and a sample of children's files. All required documentation was appropriately posted on the parent information board. Handwashing practices were also observed during the inspection. The facility is recommended for licensing.
