Comments: A staff member who does not have the NB Curriculum training was not registered. Administrator registered her during the inspection. Staff is registered to start the training in Sept 2021.

General Comments

Observed positive interactions between staff and children during the inspection, such as educators sitting down or kneeling to speak with children, use of redirection as a positive child guidance technique, reading stories and signing songs with children. All educators are using webbing as a planning tool and use various methods to document children's learning - portfolio's, artifacts on display, learning stories, photos and art on the walls.
