General Comments The center has an active summer program with a variety of activities for the children. During my visit, I saw the children playing outside in a wooded area and they were making forts, and they were using their imaginations to create new things to play with. The educators seem to have positive and respectful relationships with the children. Please update the staff signed statements to include the Early Childhood Services Act and Licencing Regulations.
