General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this afternoon. The school aged children were observed outside, playing on and around the school playground. Children were observed on the equipment, climbing the monkey bars, swinging on the swings, playing soccer. and exploring nature. Positive child guidance techniques were observed – educators conversing with the children, educators checking in and ensuring that the children were having fun, educators providing appropriate supervision, and educators using positive language. Educators stated that the children are presently very interested in arts and crafts, Lego, and the car center / track. The inside environments were observed while the children were outside. The cafeteria was set up and ready to go! Several well-defined learning / play areas were observed. The classroom was also observed, and it too had several well-defined learning / play centers. Tabletop activities and invitations were observed. Several forms of documentation were observed, including several examples of open-ended art projects and activities. The parent board was observed, and all required documents were posted.
