

Early Learning and Childcare Facility Inspection Report

Type of Inspection: Monitoring Inspection

Pursuant to section 21 of the Early Childhood Services Act, operators of licensed early learning and childcare facilities must post their most recent inspection report in a clearly visible and prominent place in the facility.

Name of operator Natalie O'Shea    Dispection Date   Licence Number   Lice
Facility Name Little Adventures Big Learning Academy  Address 25 Doherty Street New Maryland NB E3C 1C3  Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Megan Munden  Order for Compliance  Regulation  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  Original signed by Natalie O'Shea  August 09, 2023	Name of operator	Licence N	umber	Inspection Date
Little Adventures Big Learning Academy  Address 25 Doherty Street New Maryland NB E3C 1C3  Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Megan Munden  Position Title Quality Assurance Monitor  Order for Compliance  Regulation  Date to be corrected  Date corrected  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations. During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  August 09, 2023  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  Date	Natalie O'Shea 2016224		August 09	August 09, 2023
Address 25 Doherty Street New Maryland NB E3C 1C3  Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Megan Munden  Regulation  Date to be corrected  General Comments  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  Date  Original signed by Natalie O'Shea  August 09, 2023	Facility Name			Telephone	Number
25 Doherty Street New Maryland NB E3C 1C3  Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Megan Munden  Regulation  Date to be corrected  General Comments  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  August 09, 2023  Date  Original signed by Natalie O'Shea  August 09, 2023	Little Adventures Big Learning Academy			(506) 454-	(506) 454-2516
Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Megan Munden  Regulation Date to be corrected  General Comments  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  August 09, 2023  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  August 09, 2023	Address			1
Megan Munden   Quality Assurance Monitor	25 Doherty Street New Maryland NB E3C 1C3
Order for Compliance  Regulation  Regulation  Date to be corrected  Ceneral Comments  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations. During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  August 09, 2023  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  August 09, 2023	Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff		Position	Position Title
General Comments  On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  August 09, 2023  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  Date  August 09, 2023	Megan Munden		Quality Assurance Monitor
On the morning of the monitoring inspection, the preschoolers were using the Osmo Learning System. Children practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden August 09, 2023  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Date  Original signed by Natalie O'Shea August 09, 2023	Order for Compliance		egulation		Date corrected practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming.  The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner and treated with respect and compassion.  Original signed by Megan Munden  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  Date  August 09, 2023  August 09, 2023	General Comments
Megan Munden  Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff  Original signed by Natalie O'Shea  August 09, 2023  August 09, 2023	practiced numbers, letters, shapes, and tangrams.  The group recently had questions about Barnacles. The operator and children co-created a list on chart paper and displayed it in the art room.  The operator enjoys sharing her love of art with the children and includes it daily in her programming. The art room is set up as a "Maker Space." There is an abundance of various art materials- different paints and paintbrushes, paper, markers, stamps, scissors, glue, washi tape and clipboards. Materials are accessible so children can independently choose the medium for their art creations.  During the inspection, the operator created designs on a gel printing plate with the children.  Evidence of the operator's extensive purposeful planned program is shown in the children's portfolios. Artwork, photographs, and connections to the curriculum are added each week.  The operator used positive child guidance throughout the morning. Children were spoken to in a kind manner
Natalie O'Shea August 09, 2023	Megan Munden	f Da		ugust 09, 2023
				ugust 09, 2023		