General Comments

Both groups of children were getting ready to go play outside when I arrived for today's monitoring visit. Educators were observed hanging signs on the main doors of the building informing parents/others where the children can be found outside playing. This is done because this licence is especially lucky to have several different play areas that are accessible to them throughout the course of the day. On different occasions, they can be found playing in the school field, school playground or in two wooded areas behind the facility.

Both groups of children went to play in the "back woods" area today. Children were observed taking full advantage of all the natural material that the woods provide for them! Children were observed running around chasing each other, gross motor games, imaginary play with sticks, twigs, branches, rocks, and safely climbing smaller trees. Educators ensured they spread out around the wooded area to ensure they could properly supervise the children. This is a great area as it is filled with natural material; and because it is wooded, the trees offer an abundant amount of shade and it somewhat shield's them from the rain (to a certain extent).

Observed educators providing gentle reminders to children in order to ensure they stayed within the boundaries of the "back woods". Educators were observed to be engaged with children during today's inspection.

Everyone had to come back inside the facility a little earlier than expected as it started to rain fairly heavily, and it appeared that it wasn't going to let up. Once inside, the children were asked to wash their hands and get ready for lunch. After lunch, both groups were observed playing around the room. During quiet time, children were able to read books, do crafts, puzzles, board games or participate in a group game directed by an educator. The children really appeared to enjoy a group game of "Catch, don't catch".
