General Comments Monitoring Inspection: A monitoring inspection was conducted in the afternoon for the preschool group. Children were observed during nap and snack time. The indoor environment was well organized and set up with a variety of materials to support children's exploration and learning. Clearly defined learning interest centers were available, providing opportunities for independent and guided play. The outdoor environment was thoughtfully prepared with several invitations to play for use following nap time. Activities included planting, painting, water play, and construction materials. Adequate shade was available throughout the outdoor space. The operator shared that the children are actively engaged in gardening experiences, including growing watermelons, pumpkins, green onions, blueberries, strawberries, wildflowers, and sunflowers. Purposeful planning was evident throughout the learning environment. Documentation was displayed and demonstrated clear connections to the New Brunswick Curriculum Framework, supporting children's learning and development. Monthly fire drills are current and appropriately documented. Daily attendance records were reviewed and found to be accurate, reflecting all children in attendance at the time of the inspection. Staff-to-child ratios were observed and found to be in compliance. All required documentation was posted on the parent information board and was up to date.
