General Comments

Operator is kind and loving towards the children. A variety of experiences are being offered to the children. Healthy food choices are being given to the children. Operator has pre-planned programming but stated that she remains very flexible with the children.

Due to snow coverage the surfacing outside underneath the swing set cannot be measured likewise did not observe shading. Operator stated sails are used for shade in the Spring. Outdoor play space appears to be maintained with a lot to offer. Operator stated that they are in the process of building an outdoor rink for children to use. Licensing staff advised Operator that rink can be used with helmets and by obtaining permission from parent(s).

Filing system is meticulous. Operator's and associate person's social development check expires in February and criminal record and vulnerable sector checks expire in March. Operator has already requested completion from appropriate departments, Operator keeps a detailed log of everyday incidents that may occur with the children. Operator has an empty file for reportable incidents, should the event ever occur. Operator is aware of regulations surrounding reportable incidents.

Fire extinguishers need to be serviced prior to licensing as they expire in the month of February.

Covid-19 guidelines are being followed. Temperatures are being taken both upon arrival and mid-day. Operator is masked and parent(s) are currently not entering home.
