Comments: The Operator relayed to licensing staff that currently, the children determine what the play will be when they arrive each day. Licensing staff informed the Operator that she is requirement to create a purposely planned and documented program in advance based on the children's interests. The Operator will send along a documented plan to licensing staff.

General Comments
Licensing staff arrived at the facility to conduct the annual license renewal inspection. Upon licensing staff arrival at the licensed facility, one child was on their way to the preschool program at the school for the morning. Licensing staff observed the children engaging in free play activities throughout the inspection. It was quite cold on the day of the inspection, so the children did not go outside to play. Licensing staff noted a Valentines Day loose parts activity open for the children to play with. The loose parts activity consisted of the follow materials: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -wooden, coloured hearts; -a variety of different sized hearts; -pink playdough with heart cookie cutters; -tweezers; -wooden spoons; -mini silicone muffin tins (various sizes) The children had multigrain cheerios with milk and strawberries for snack and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, grapes and bologna chunks. Licensing staff observed the educator positively guiding the children by redirecting and speaking calmly with the children when they engaged in a challenging behaviour.
