General Comments
During my visit the children were having free play after lunch. The children are learning about arctic animals this week and they made polar bear art which was displayed on the walls. The classroom appears clean. The classroom has been divided into two areas in order to maintain COVID guidelines and it appears that there are age appropriate materials for each side of the classroom. The children had a choice of books from the library today, and they can get library books once a week. The classroom got new mats today with roads, houses, etc.. pictured on them, and the children seemed to enjoy playing with cars and other items on these mats. Please update the contact information for your quality assurance monitor (Mary Ramsay-Irving) and your inspector (Nancy Glendenning) on your postings. Please also post the last renewal inspection with your postings along with the most up to date monitoring visit. The after school children arrived, washed their hands, and had some free time to play before going outside.
