General Comments

Preschool Children were busily playing at time of arrival. Facility will close for the summer this week. Educators engage with the children on a continuous basis by speaking and taking interest in what the children are saying or doing. Only positive child guidance was witnessed at time of visit.

Operators are missing up to date files on site. Advised administrator that this information can be e-mailed for verification.

Financial records must be kept on site. This only includes government funding that has been allocated to facility.
