Comments: Several daily incident logs are not signed by the parents. Administrator must make sure all incident logs are complete and signed by the parent.

General Comments
During the renewal inspection, the inspector observed the children arriving from school. The children are playing freely indoors, having their snack and making crafts. A group of children went for a walk downtown.
Ratio is respected during the inspection.
Inspector and administrator did have a discussion how important and necessary for the children to go outdoors daily.
