General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection occurred November 2025

The children were observed in both indoor and outdoor environments, including during transitions between the two. Upon arrival from school, both rooms transitioned outdoors. Outdoors, the children engaged in a variety of activities such as playing in the wooded area, playing soccer, and using the stationary equipment.

Both groups then transitioned indoors, washing their hands before entering their classrooms.

Room 1: Several children were observed eating snack while others engaged in free play activities, such as building with blocks, engaging in art at the table, and playing board games. The educators indicated that the children are currently interested in art, Perler beads, and dramatic play.

Room 2: Several children were observed eating snack while others engaged in free play activities such as reading books, playing in the dramatic play center, engaging in art at the table, and playing board games. The educators indicated that the children are currently interested in outdoor play, particularly the monkey bars and the wooded area, building with Knex and Lego.

A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents observed included incident logs, daily attendance records, and monthly emergency evacuation and fire drills.

A conversation took place with the Administrator on the following:

- Ensure that EpiPens are brought with the group during all transitions and activities, so they always remain accessible.
- Educators to ensure that the children's learning is visible in the classroom through documentation. For example: collections and samples of children's artwork, photographs, and project work,
