General Comments
A monitoring inspection was conducted today. The children were observed in inside play during visit.
The children in both groups were actively engaged in art/ crafts, games, building with blocks and engaging in conversations with their peers.
The educators were observed attentive to the children's needs and were observed in meaningful and respectful conversations.
Discussions were had regarding groupings of children: Under the Alert Level Orange: "Changes to groupings of children are not permitted." Discussed outside play and the children were preparing to go outside at end of inspection visit.
