General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. The K-2's were observed washing their hands upon entering the after-school classrooms. The younger group were observed making bracelets, designing Perler Beads, and drawing. Children were observed during snack. Some chose to eat food from home and others ate strawberry ice cream, apples, and bananas. Children were also observed in the gym. Children were observed playing "Capture the Flag" and "Cross River". Educators were engaged with the children, actively taking part in both games. The 3-5's were observed washing their hands upon arrival. Children were observed eating snack - some had food from home and others had strawberry ice cream, bananas, and apples. A group of children were observed sitting at a table, making pumpkins out of art materials. An invitation was observed with the statement "Can you make a pumpkin"? Children were also observed drawing and playing Connect 4.
