General Comments A renewal inspection occurred in the afternoon on this license. Upon arrival at the childcare facility, licensing observed the children arriving from school and immediately washing their hands upon entering the childcare rooms. The children divided into groups with one group going to the library, one outside and the other remaining in the indoor learning environment. Children were observed inside playing a game of chess, making elastic bracelets, creating with Pearler beads, and reading books. During outside play the children were observed by licensing participating in a game of soccer in the field, having snack outside, playing on the school stationary equipment, engaged in a game of basketball and socializing with their peers. Educators were observed positioning themselves throughout the outside environment, so the children were within their sight at all times. All requirement for renewal were observed to be in compliance at the time of the renewal inspection.
