General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this afternoon. Upon arrival, the infants and 2's were napping. The school aged children were inside, having snacks, and taking part in free play. Educators stated that the school aged children are presently interested in Lego, Arts & Crafts, and playing outside. After snack, the school aged children were observed outside, playing and hanging out, in the fenced in play area. The preschool children were in the process of lining up, and getting ready to go outside, to have a picnic under the big tree. The preschool children were observed sitting at the picnic table, eating snacks. The preschool children were later observed playing, in the fenced in play area. The 2's were observed eating their snacks. After snack, children were observed outside, playing in the fenced in paly area. Infants - infants were observed inside, finishing their snack, and outside, playing on the deck. Diaper changing was observed, and all diaper changing procedures were followed. Several forms of documentation were observed throughout the facility – learning stories, photos, and children's artwork. Attendance records were observed and were accurate. Positive child guidance techniques were observed – educators on the children's level, educators using positive language, and educators offering choices. Parent board was observed and all required documents were present. Quality Assurance Monitor's updated contact information to be added.
