General Comments

activities was completed in the daily planification during the entire week.

The inspector had a discussion with the administrator regarding children who are unable to transition to the 2-year-old classroom on their second birthday. Children may remain in the infant classroom until the transition becomes possible. However, the operator must ensure that all eligible infants are transitioned to the 2-year-old classroom before enrolling any additional preschool-aged children into the facility.

The ratio was respected during the renewal inspection.
