General Comments

When I arrived, two groups were arriving from school and went straight to the playgrounds.

One group came inside, did the question of the day and also talked about their new entrepreneurship plan for the coming weeks. The children were asked to wash their hands and then had a snack. The children did free play and then at 3:30 they cleaned up and then they talked about their entrepreneurship plan. All the children were given the opportunity to put their ideas forward and the educators ensured all children were included.

Positive child guidance was heard many times, staff were encouraging children, complimenting them on their ideas and suggestions.

The other group came inside around 3:45, washed their hands and had a snack. The children who did not want a snack, played.

Staff were engaged with the children, indoors and outdoors, playing with them and engaged in conversations with them.

The space is clean and organized, the children have access to a lot of different materials such as but not limited to, arts and crafts supplies including loose parts, books, games, blocks, there are two large foam bags that can be used sitting or for gross motor and an area with a kitchen and costumes.

Everything is in compliance; I recommend for renewal.
