General Comments

When inspector arrived on site, children were seated at tables and were creating birthday cards for another child in the daycare. They were also preparing to enjoy some birthday cake. Inspector observed that the child/staff ratio was in compliance. Due to the covid-19 winter plan, the daycare should not have any more than 20 children in one shared space. Educator separated the 23 children into two separate groups during the inspection.

Inspector noticed that educators were positively engaging with children. Inspector noted that children had access to sufficient reading materials, blocks and toys. As well, inspector observed pictures of children being active outdoors and completing activities inside and outside the facility.

Inspector noted that the educators were ensuring that children were wearing masks in accordance with the covid-19 winter plan.
