General Comments
The Quality Assurance Monitor is on site for a follow-up inspection. The ratio is respected at the time of the visit. Child record files and new staff member's files were verified at the time of the visit. The Quality Assurance Monitor observed that 16 children were present, but more children were signed in on the attendance sheet. The educator informed the Quality Assurance Monitor that the children that are on the bus, on their way to the facility, are signed in. The Quality Assurance Monitor reminds the educator that only the children present at the facility must be signed. With that, they must wait until the group arrives to sign them as present.
