General Comments
The QAM observed all learning environments and noted that each room displayed documentation related to outdoor play, sensory exploration, under the sea painting, sea animal webs, snowball-making activities, and family experiences. All children had an individual documentation binder, and all binders were complete and up to date. 4–5 Year Old Rooms Educators reported that children's current interests include musical instruments, dramatic play, sea animals, snow, outdoor activities, hockey, and cars. A designated car centre was available to support this interest. 2–3 Year Old Rooms Children in these rooms demonstrated interest in loose parts, dramatic play, outdoor exploration, building activities, winter animals, and cars. Under 24 Months Educators indicated that infants and toddlers were engaged with dancing, loose parts, books, finger puppets, and painting. Child-to-staff ratios were appropriate in all rooms. Incident reports were accurate, The QAM discussed with the administrator the requirement that educators must remain with children at all times while they are on the changing table to ensure safety for the child.
