General Comments

On the day of my visit the center had croup posted on their front door. There have been a few illnesses around the end of January with the exception of a few cases of fever. Lindsey and I reviewed the management of illness documents and the center is following proper protocols.

There have been some rearrangements of rooms and new teachers which has had a disruptive affect which the staff are working to mitigate.

Lindsey will submit a change of service form to reflect these changes.
