General Comments
When I arrived at the center nap time was coming to an end. Lindsay meet me at the door screened me with the proper COVID questions. She gave me a quick tour of the center as I had never been there before. Each room had a large variety of materials for the children to use. There was documentation, learning stories and children's art work on the walls. The Educators were attentive to the children's needs and I heard lots of positive guidance while I was there. I updated the staff records as there had been new Educators since the last visit. The children were very happy and playful during my visit.
