General Comments
On the day of my visit the center was functioning very well. The educators were working and communicating with each other. There are numerous examples of the children's work and learning stories displayed. There is evidence of planned programming in each classroom The educators are engaged with the children, giving each child the individual attention they need. I noticed the staff reading stories, drawing and playing all at the child's level. The children were happy and content.
