General Comments

For posted inspection reports, ensure that each page of each report is easily viewable. if you are going to hang them one on top of the other each page should have one page protector rather than all pages in one.

During inspection today, children and educators were engaged in a variety of activities with a balance of indoor and outdoor play observed. Within each room, learning centres and table invitations were set up to engage children with a variety of choice in materials and activities. Children were observed engaged in dramatic play, block play, small manipulatives, painting and drawing. Educators engage with children at their level and speak kindly and respectfully. Positive child guidance was also observed today. Posted documentation highlighted children's current interests and learning.
