General Comments The QAM conducted their first visit since the license moving buildings. Administration provided a comprehensive tour of the indoor and outdoor environments, including all designated learning areas. Each environment was equipped with appropriate materials to support art, dramatic play, block play, literacy, and various toys. All spaces were clean, well-organized, and maintained to a high standard. During the indoor tour, educators were actively engaged with children in planned activities. Outdoors, children had access to balls, picnic tables, rocking horses, a mud kitchen, slides, and trucks. Staff-to-child ratios were accurate and met regulatory requirements. Parent information boards were current and displayed all required documentation.
