| General Comments   |
| The children are observed to be actively engaged in activity today within the purposefully planned learning centers. A variety of invitations are set up throughout the room based on the current interests of the children. All children enjoyed exploring their learning environment, meanwhile, interacting/negotiating/problem solving with one another along with the supportive guidance and engagement of their educator. The group of children are becoming familiar of the routine of the morning. Observed a smooth transition into snack time and quality conversation and learning during this time. Strong evidence of valuing interactions and relationships. Well done! A balance of indoor and outdoor play. |
