General Comments
Children were enjoying some free play time during my visit. As I toured the facility the children were enjoying dramatic play in one class. The other classroom was having water play and learning about different aquatic animals. The infants and two year old groups were having stories read to them before lunch was served. There is evidence of planned activities and programming as the children were eager to show me the materials they had made. The activities this week have been Christmas related, making ornaments and playing different games such as scavenger hunt. I reviewed the staff files and all were in proper order.
