General Comments When I arrived at the facility the children were getting ready for outdoor play time. Sunscreen was applied and all the children were wearing hats. The infants were enjoying the sandbox and playing with the cars on the grass. In the larger playground the children were enjoying a wide range of activities such as digging in the dirt and shifting rocks, playing bubbles, swinging and just running around. The educators were actively involved with the children's activities. The operator plans to add more natural objects to the playground this summer and relaxation area with a hammock.
