General Comments

The educators and staff were very welcoming when I arrived. I was given a tour of the facility and introduced to the educators.

The educators were able to answer my questions and provide me with the documents that I requested.

The children all seemed to be happy and content. The educators were engaged with the children and there was evidence of documentation and planned activities.

I was able to update all staff information while I was here as there had been a turn over in staff over the past year.
