General Comments

child files.

A reminder that staff must be provided with the materials necessary for programing and materials in their classrooms.

As discussed, please review section 7.1 Daily activities and 9.2.2 Indoor play area materials and equipment of the Operator Manual for classroom set up and materials.

The indoor and outdoor play areas minimally include, but are not limited to, the following: a book/reading area; an art area; a dramatic play area; a block construction area; an area for scientific and mathematical investigation and measurement; an area for music and movement; space and equipment to allow for large motor movement; and provisions for play with elemental materials – sand, water, mud, clay and snow.

The indoor play area is:

- safely maintained.
- free of clutter and excess materials and equipment; and
- arranged to allow opportunities for free choice of activities.

Open ended play materials and equipment in sufficient quantity and variety for the size of the group and representative of each of the following categories is present:

- art materials including loose parts; • blocks and accessories; • language and literacy; • dramatic play; • music and movement; • large muscle (gross motor); • manipulative and fine motor; • sand and water play; • puzzles and games; • materials that support mathematical learning; and • materials that support learning in science and technology.
