General Comments
Monitoring report performed. *I reviewed child attendance records and educators are tracking. It is a bonus to have educators with their ECE for planning afterschool programming. *Lots of activities planned this week. Today they are making Candy Kabobs, Tomorrow is Spa day. I attached a copy of the March break programming to this report. During today's visit children were observed making a design with melting beads, some children playing with flubber, others making designs with fluffy foam and also others working on a 300 piece puzzle. *Appropriate child guidance practices observed. Educators were observed engaged, talking, involved with children's activities. Lots of interaction observed. Educators give children choices and provide appropriate time before moving onto other activities. They will be going outdoors to get some fresh air after snacktime. They made marshmallow squares this morning so that sounds like a yummy snack. They are also eating ham and cheese sandwich for a snack. A beautiful afternoon to be outside.
