General Comments A Monitoring Inspection occurred in the morning of January 8, 2025 The children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor environments, including transition. Upon arrival, the children were observed eating snack. After snack, the children were observed in free play activities that included going down the slide, playing with blocks, singing, dancing, and engaging in dramatic play, specifically pretending to be doctors and fixing their classroom stuffie, Rainbow Sparkles. Outdoors, the children were observed making snowballs and throwing them at the wall to see who could throw the highest, as well as sliding down the hill. The educators indicated that the children are currently interested in dramatic play, art, music, and dancing. Several forms of documentation were visible throughout the room, including photographs, learning stories, and children's artwork. Books were selected to reflect the children's interests. Traffic areas, both indoors and outdoors, were maintained in clean and clutter-free condition. Documentation was visible throughout the room, including photographs, individual and collaborative artwork and learning stories. Educators demonstrated positive interactions by using encouraging language and gentle reminders. They asked open ended questions, listened actively, and extended children's ideas through conversations. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents observed included incident logs, daily attendance records, and monthly emergency evacuation and fire drills.
