General Comments

A monitoring inspection occurred in the morning.

Upon arrival, the group was observed preparing to transition outdoors. Once outside, children were engaged in a variety of activities, including searching for bugs using newly added bug cages, digging in the rocks with shovels and buckets, playing "Mr. Wolf" on the hill, and blowing bubbles.

Positive child guidance practices were observed throughout the visit. Educators were engaged at the children's level, providing appropriate supervision, using encouraging language, offering choices, and supporting children with decision-making.

Documentation was visible throughout the rooms and hallway, including learning stories, learning webs, and children's artwork. The environment was observed to be well organized and inviting, with a variety of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys available to the children.

A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any compliance orders. Additional documentation reviewed included incident logs, daily attendance records, one staff file, and records of monthly emergency evacuation and fire drills.
