General Comments
Children were enjoying morning snack upon arrival of licensing staff. The table was clean and appropriate supervision was maintained throughout the duration of snack time. The operator provided assistance with snack items as needed with the children while also promoting independence. Pleasant conversation took place between the operator and the children as they ate. Operator was observed disinfecting the table after snack time. Drop off of children was observed throughout the morning routine The operator was able to provide a copy of the renewal application to the Quality Assurance Monitor during the inspection. The indoor play area was inviting for play with all materials placed at the children's level and in organized bins. The children had a variety of play materials to choose from which were all developmentally appropriate for the children in attendance. Home will be closed September 12th - 13th for vacation. Operator will provide the remaining renewal application items via email once they are completed. Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times.
