General Comments When I arrived the children were finishing up their snack and were getting ready for outdoor playtime. The two year old children went for a walk while the other groups went to the outdoor play space. There is evidence of planned programming and documentation of the children's learning. I reviewed the children and staff files. All were in proper order. Would like to see more materials in the 3's rooms such as books as they are showing wear and tear. The educators were engaged with the children and friendly during my visit.
