General Comments

When I arrived, the children were playing, and the educator was setting up a craft activity for them. Although there was a craft activity planned, the children were provided with other activity options.

The Centre is clean and well organized. The children have access to a verity of materials.

The educators spoke to the children in a respectful manner. The educators were engaged with the children during the activity, one educator also did the craft with them. They also helped the children as needed. The educator was also providing the children with encouraging words and positive feedback regarding their craft.

The children were happy and having a lot of fun this afternoon, lots of laughter was heard.

The children have access to a large outdoor green space, backing up to the walking trail. A large bag of outdoor toys is taken outside with them when they go out.

I recommend for renewal.
