General Comments A monitoring inspection was conducted today. Children were observed inside the facility for a very short time upon their arrival after school as they immediately got ready to go outside to engage in activities in their outside learning environments. Defined, age appropriate interest centers are set up throughout and the educators have created engaging and inviting invitations for learning for the children to explore. The children have numerous interests they are exploring. One being space and the solar system. The children have created a model of the solar system and have books and material readily available for them to explore more. The children also have an interest in gardening and are currently growing avocados and beans. The children's learning is well documented in the form of learning stories and pictures throughout their after school environment. These displays give the children an opportunity to revisit their experiences whenever they choose.
