General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Upon arrival for the renewal inspection, the children were observed playing outside in the fog/rain. Splashing in the puddles, swinging on the swings, building with wood and hanging with their peers. When the children came back inside, handwashing was observed occurring before inside play. The children were observed making and eating ice cream, building with blocks, and reading books, The dramatic play area has been transformed into a McDonalds and the children were observed taking orders, and "making food", for their friends. The educators in the room have created an inviting and engaging environment with a wide variety of loose parts and age-appropriate open-ended materials for the children to interact and engage with. The educators were observed having positive interactions with the children in their care.
